I.F. STONE'S WEEKLY

"I.F. Stone's Weekly" is self identified as "an independent weekly published and edited by I.F. Stone".

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 26, 1950 that he had been acquainted with I.F. Stone for fifteen or twenty years. The source stated Stone was not a member of the Communist Party (CP) when he first met him, but during the mid 1930's, Stone did become a member of the CP. The source advised that he received information substantiating Stone's membership in the CP not only from CP functionaries such as Israel Amter and Jack Satchel but also from [redacted]. The source also advised that Stone assisted the CP by aiding in the preparation of attacks on enemies of the CP.

YALE DAILY NEWS, FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1962

Stone Calls US Cuban Policy Inconsistent with World Law

"Obedience to the law for powerful nations is the measure of their greatness; obedience to the law for small nations is the guarantee of their freedom." I.P. Stone, noted liberal newspaper columnist, made this statement the keystone of his address to the Yale Law Forum last night.

Speaking on the topic, "Is our policy on Cuba consistent with our stand on world law?" Mr. Stone called for a new, magnanimous policy toward the Cuban communists.

Having established the United States' interest in the maintenance of world law, he pointed to the training of the Cuban invasion army as a violation of our neutrality laws. The speaker also spoke of the Cuban invasion and the subsequent embargos as being indirect contravention of the agreements of Montevideo and Buenos Aires, as well as of the Bogota Charter.

Cuba and the OAS

Mr. Stone called our actions against Cuba in the OAS completely incompatible with the concept of the OAS as a regional organization within the framework of the United Nations. He pointed out that this organizational setup is clearly stated in the OAS charter. Basing his argument on these points, the Washington commentator termed our failure to check the OAS sanctions through the Security Council as "thoroughly irresponsible."

Mr. Stone also branded the expulsion of Cuba from the OAS and the stifling of debate on the Cuban question in the UN as breaches of world law.

Mr. Stone admitted that his arguments were based on "a background of sympathy for Castro and the Cubans." He termed this "a sympathy almost more risky than sympathy for the Russians today." He sensed an "hysteria like that which prevailed before the last war," in which "intelligent people refuse to hear anything about Cuba from the other side."

In conclusion, Mr. Stone foresaw disastrous consequences for US foreign policy unless our stand on Cuba is changed in the near future.

CIA Lawless

In a lively question period, the speaker went on to condemn the CIA (an organization dedicated to "international crime and lawlessness"); the State Department ("bureaucrats who think very much like the bureaucrats in Moscow"); and the United States' restrictions on travel in Communist countries ("an American Iron Curtain").

TO : SAC, WASHINGTON FIELD

DATE: 4/5/62

FROM : SAC, NEW HAVEN (100-0)

SUBJECT: I. F. STONE

SM - G

Enclosed for the Washington Field Office is a copy of a newspaper article which appeared in the "Yale Daily News," a student newspaper at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, issue of 3/16/62, page 4, reflecting that I. F. STONE, described as a "Washington commentator," had addressed the Yale Law Forum at the Yale Law School, in which he termed the United States policy on Cuba as being inconsistent with our stand on world law and "called for a new, magnanimous policy toward the Cuban communists." STONE also admitted that his arguments were based on a background of sympathy for CASTRO and the Cubans.

The above is being furnished for the information of the Washington Field Office and no further action is contemplated by the New Haven Office.

DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D.C.I. BACKGROUND

The files of the Credit Bureau, Incorporated, Washington, D.C., as reviewed by IC [redacted] on March 15, 1962, indicated in a credit report dated November 4, 1961, that the subject resided with his wife, ESTHER STONE, at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. This report further advised that the subject was self-employed as owner of "I.F. Stone's Weekly," newsletter, which he published at his home.

The March 26, 1962, issue of "I.F. Stone's Weekly" reflected on page four that it is an independent weekly published and edited by I.F. STONE at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

This paper listed ESTHER M. STONE as Circulation Manager.

The 1961-62 Washington Metropolitan Area Telephone Directory listed the subject's office and residence as being at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W.

A Special Agent (SA) of the FBI on March 30, 1962, ascertained under suitable pretext from the subject's wife, that the subject both resides at and publishes his newsletter at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W.

The files of the Metropolitan Police Department, as reviewed by IC [redacted] on March 14, 1962, contain no record of the subject between the period January 30, 1960, and March 14, 1962; at all times an indefinite number of unidentified records are out of file and not available for review.

III. ORGANIZATIONS

A. Washington Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (WCSNP)

The WCSNP is described in the Appendix Section of this report.

On June 1, 1961, WF T-1 made available a mimeographed leaflet reflecting that the WCSNP was a sponsoring organization of a meeting to be held on June 1, 1961, at the Friends Meeting House, 21st and Florida Avenue. I.F. STONE was listed to speak on "Can We Solve Our Foreign Policy by Cloak and Dagger Methods?"

WF T-1 on June 5, 1961, stated that there was a meeting of the WCSNP at the Friends Meeting House on June 1, 1961, and I.F. STONE was the speaker. STONE was critical of the United States foreign policy and advised that the leaders in the Pentagon should not read the writings of MAO TSE - tung, but should study MARX and ENGELS. STONE said that in this way, the leaders could obtain more practical information which would help solve the problems of the world today. STONE also stated that the United States should keep a hands-off policy towards Cuba.

WF T-2 on June 7, 1961, verified the subject's presence at the above-referred-to meeting on June 1, 1961.

S~~

This informant said that STONE stated that the United States and Russia should work together and share their wealth in order to develop the "under-developed countries." In response to a question from the audience, STONE said that Cuba was not a socialist country, and he suggested that the United States set up a program to prevent Cuba from falling into the communist or Russian sphere of influence.

B. Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC)

The FPCC is described in the Appendix Section of this report.

WF T-3 on August 11, 1961, advised that I.F. STONE had agreed to speak at a fall meeting of the FPCC at New York City. STONE also agreed to do a story on all of the persecutions of that committee.

On September 5, 1961, WF T-3 stated that STONE was scheduled to speak at an FPCC sponsored affair at the Hotel Diplomat, New York City, on October 12, 1961.

(U) WF T-4, on September 29, 1961, stated that STONE recently advised that he would not talk at a contemplated FPCC affair at Washington, D.C. (C)

(U) On November 6, 1961, WF T-4 made available the information that the subject's name and address appear on the current mailing list of the FPCC at Washington, D.C. (C)

C. Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC)

The ECLC is described in the Appendix Section of this report.

WF T-5, on December 18, 1961, advised that STONE was present at an ECLC Bill of Rights dinner which was held at the Commodore Hotel, New York City, on December 15, 1961. At this dinner, STONE was introduced to the audience as one of the founders of this committee.

WF T-6, on January 8, 1962, verified the subject's attendance at the ECLC dinner on December 15, 1961. At this dinner, STONE spoke on civil liberties and civil rights. He told those present that he defended the cause of communists because in defending the rights of communists, he, in turn, preserved civil rights, civil liberties, and constitutional rights.

~~SECRET~~

WF T-7, on January 16, 1962, corroborated the subject's attendance at the ECLC affair held on December 15, 1961.

III. MISCELLANEOUS

WF T-8, on June 2, 1961, made available the information that among the subscribers to "Political Affairs" was "T.P. Stone's Weekly," 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C.

"Political Affairs" is described in the Appendix Section of this report.

(S) SAs of the FBI, on June 22, 1961, observed the Subject, [redacted] and [redacted] lunching together at the China Inn, 631 H Street, N.W. (S)

b1
b6
b7C

WF T-9, in June, 1961, identified [redacted] as [redacted] for Prensa Latina.

Prensa Latina is a Cuban news agency with headquarters in Havana, Cuba, and with branches throughout the world. This agency was organized in Cuba in April, 1959, and has been operating in the United States since June of the same year. Prensa Latina in its releases follows the editorial policy which is anti-United States and pro-Soviet Union.

On February 8, 1961, Prensa Latina and FRANCISCO V. PORTELA, head of the New York Office of that agency, were indicted by a Federal Grand Jury at Washington, D.C., for failure to register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, as agents of the Cuban Government.

The "Organization of American States Directory of Delegations," dated April, 1961, reflected his Excellency Senor DON CARLOS M. LECHUGA as Ambassador and Representative to the Organization of American States (OAS).

The Binghamton, New York, "Evening Press," in its issue of December 7, 1961, on page 19, carried an interview of the subject by a reporter of that paper on December 6, 1961. STONE was in Binghamton to give a talk at Harpur College, on the subject "Berlin, Belgrade, and the Bomb." In discussing the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee with the reporter, STONE challenged the "communist front" label placed on this committee by the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). He said that "we" differ fundamentally with the communists on civil liberties; that the Communist Party (CP) does not believe in civil liberties "when it is in power," and neither does the HCUA. The subject stated that the HCUA were communists in reverse in that they really did not believe in freedom, but believed in hounding and smearing those with whom they disagree. STONE told the reporter that he had been against HCUA all his life, and he thought it would be very good for this country if it were abolished.

The subject identified himself to the reporter of the "Evening Press" as publisher of "I.F. Stone's Weekly," which he said is in its ninth year of publication. STONE related that this periodical has a national subscription of approximately 17,000 and was sold in every state.

The "Evening Press," in its issue of December 8, 1961, on page 25, carried an article reflecting that on December 7, 1961, the subject spoke at the State University College, Oneonta, New York. He urged the institution of a world court that could settle the problems between conflicting countries, and settle the belief of countries that they have a right to murder in the name of war.

STONE also stated on December 7, 1961, that FIDEL CASTRO of Cuba is regarded as a joke by many Americans, but he has emerged as "one of the great men to come out of Latin America, whatever we might think about him." STONE also stated that communist China should be admitted to the United Nations. He said that no doubt communist China would be difficult to deal with, but as long as China is treated as an outcast, it will behave like an outcast.

The "Evening Press," in its issue of December 9, 1961, carried an article that STONE had spoken in Binghamton, New York, on the evening of December 8, 1961. In this speech, he criticized the HCUA and stated that it approved of freedom of speech so long as the speaker's views coincided with the views of that committee. STONE said that after the communists took over in Russia after the revolution, they started shipping out and exiling everyone who disagreed with their views. The subject added that despite "some

WF T-10, on February 2, 1962, advised that STONE had recently refused an invitation to speak at an affair to be held at Carnegie Hall, New York City, on March 3, 1962, which was to be an anniversary celebration of "The Worker."

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

Confidential informants who are familiar with some phases of Communist Party activities in the Washington, D.C., area, in March, 1962, had no additional information concerning the activities of the subject.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. "Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

- "1. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.'

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC)

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the FPCC. This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City, listed various sponsors of the Committee and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press on Cuban affairs.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself as one of the organizers of the FPCC. Also, Dr. SANTOS-BUCH identified ROBERT TABER as a co-organizer of the FPCC and said TABER drafted the aforementioned FPCC advertisement. Dr. SANTOS-BUCH further testified that he and TABER obtained $3,500 from the Cuban Government through the son of Cuba's Foreign Minister, which funds, along with about $1,100 collected from supporters of the FPCC, paid for the cost of aforementioned advertisement in "The New York Times".

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a recent FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization. This source asserted that the SWP members believed that they had achieved a great influence in the course of the Cuban revolution through their control of the FPCC.

On February 10, 1961, a second source advised that PHIL BART, National Organizational Secretary and member of the National Committee, CP, USA, had reportedly stated recently that the FPCC had been captured by the Trotskyites, but that the CP had not given up in the FPCC.

The SWP and the CP, USA, have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

WASHINGTON COMMITTEE FOR A
SANE NUCLEAR POLICY

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that the Washington Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (WCSNP) was organized in February, 1958, and that it continues to function in the Washington, D. C. area. It has no headquarters, but utilized Post Office Box 8068, Washington, D. C. On May 12, 1961, source advised that this organization is still active.

According to this source, the aims and purposes of the WCSNP are:

1. The cessation of nuclear weapons testing with adequate inspection.
2. International control of the manufacture, use and production of nuclear weapons and guided missiles.
3. General disarmament.

In March, 1960, a second source advised that an individual, who has been identified in the past as a Communist Party (CP) member, described the Executive Board of the WCSNP as being composed of individuals "some for the left, some neutral, and some socialist." He said the only active people in the organization at that time were "the militant left and the socialists," plus a few individuals attracted by the question of fallout.

The first source above advised that as of May, 1961, the Executive Board of the WCSNP included [redacted] as President, and Abe Bloom as Secretary.

b6
b7C

Source stated on June 17, 1960, that [redacted] has identified himself as a member of the Socialist Party.

A third source, on February 23, 1955, advised that the source had no knowledge that Abe Bloom was a CP member, but that Bloom was an individual who supported CP policies at that time.

It is pointed out that membership in the WCSNP does not, in itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the CP.

Rerep of SA PAUL E. MORRISON dated 4/10/62, at WDC.

The files of the Passport Office, U.S. Department of State, WDC, as reviewed by IC [redacted] on 4/9/62, reflected that on 2/1/61, the Passport Office decided that it had to permit STONE to visit Cuba on his current passport, he being recognized as a newsman. STONE had desired to visit Cuba some time in February, 1961, to write a piece on the present atmosphere there, and on the possibilities for the resumption of peaceful relations with the U.S.

In regard to the above matter, the report of SA PAUL E. MORRISON dated 4/28/61, at WDC in the captioned matter, on page 7 set out the information under WF T-24 that STONE was to depart from NY. [redacted] on 2/9/61.] (C) b1

"4/1/62

(U) "The following information has come to the author's attention: (C)

"On 3/31/62, [redacted] telephone Carelton Beals and asked him to speak in DC on 4/27/62. Carelton agreed. [redacted] asked him how much money would it cost the committee to bring him to DC. Carelton said, 'expenses and whatever else could be managed'. [redacted] told him that the committee could pay him a flat $100.00, which would cover his expenses and furnish him with something extra. Carelton was very happy with this arrangement. (C)

(U) [redacted] asked Carelton, if I.F. Stone would be acceptable to him as the chairman of the meeting. Carleton said that it would be an excellent idea. Carleton also agreed with [redacted] that his speech should concern the whole of Latin America and not just Cuba. Carelton will mail to [redacted] a resume of his past activities and writings, to be used for publicity purposes and by the meeting chairman who will introduce him, and the title of his speech. (C)

(U) [redacted] and Ann Ricks decided that Charles Gift should be asked to get Pierce Hall of the All Souls Unitarian Church for the 4/27 meeting. (C)

(U) [redacted] and Ann also discussed what should be done as to a replacement for [redacted] the resigned chairman of the DC, FPCC. [redacted] favored a committee without any named officials and to go along more or less like the committee has been for the past few months. He reasoned that the committee is small enough not to need any formal organizational structure, and actually, only the interested members attend the meetings. It would also be a factor if the FBI or some congressional committee decided to smear the committee's officers. (C)

(U) "A letter will be mailed on 4/2/62 to all members of the FPCC asking them to come to a meeting on 4/11/62 at Ann Ricks apartment, and for each member to try and raise a minimum of $10.00 in contributions for the committee. (C)

(U) "On 3/31/62, [redacted] telephoned for I.F. Stone and spoke to his wife. She said that he was in Geneva, Switzerland and would not return for ten days. [redacted] said that he would call again when he was expected to return home. (C)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

(U) "On 3/31/62, [ ] telephone Charles Gift and asked him to try and get Pierce Hall for the 4/27 meeting. Mr. Gift said that he would try on 4/3/62 if he were well enough to go to the church. He has been in his apartment most of the time for the past two months because of a respiratory infection and a bad cough. Twice he has blacked out while he was having a coughing spasm. On 3/30/62 he got a chest x-ray; the results of which he will find out on 4/2/62, when he telephones his doctor. (C)

(U) "On 4/1/62, [ ] conversed with Ann Ricks and told her that he would like to use, for official purposes, the corporate title of the FPCC: 'Institute for the Improvement of Inter-American Relations'. He told her, that with that name it would be easier to get a meeting hall and it is more descriptive of what he feels is the direction that FPCC should take. Ann agreed. (C)

(U) "On 4/1/62, [ ] called [ ] a new committee member; told him of the 4/27 meeting, and asked him if he had any suggestions as to a meeting hall. He said that the SANE committee, on 3/30/62, had a meeting at the Prudential Building, 1111 E St. He estimated that the hall would hold 250 persons. He said that Abe Bloom had arranged for the SANE meeting and he would call him that evening to see if he could help. [ ] notified [ ] of the new committee name to be used, and explained that it is the corporate name of the FPCC. (C)

(U) "On 4/1/62, [ ] called Selma Rein and said that he would like to come see her that day. She said that he could not because she was going to Baltimore for the day to visit with some relatives. [ ] notified her that Carelton Beals has accepted the FPCC invitation to talk on the 27th of April and that he had called I.F. Stone to ask him to be the chairman; however, the will not return for another ten days. (C)

(U) "She said that she would mention it to her husband, David Rein, and possibly he might have a suggestion as to a chairman if I.F. Stone does not accept. [ ] mentioned that he had a couple of persons working on getting a meeting hall; however, he expected trouble. She said that he could probably get the Baptist Church at 18th and Kalorama Rd. if he was unable to do any better. (C)

(U) "On 4/1/62 [ ] called Charles Gift and asked him to use the 'Institute for the Improvement of Inter-American Relations', instead of the FPCC, when asking for Pierce Hall. (C)

I. F. STONE (Stone's Weekly)

Mr. Stone telephoned about 12:30 p.m. on July 10, 1962. He inquired about validation of his passport for travel to Cuba. He's not sure whether he will go to France first and then to Cuba. Anyway, he plans to leave about the end of this month.

His wife will accompany him to Europe. Mr. Stone also inquired whether a visa was required for Spain. I checked our information and none is required (up to 6 months). I told him this and suggested he check with the Spanish Embassy in Paris just to be sure.

Mr. Stone also said he had applied for a new passport two weeks ago and so far had not received it. I told him I would check and let him know.

Mr. Stone's passport was issued and mailed to him on July 12, 1962

"Dr. PAUL OLYNYK, Chairman of Cleveland SANE, opened the meeting, briefly listing SANE's position and goals, andn introduced Dr. BENJAMIN SPOCK, who acted as moderator of The meeting.

"The first speaker was I. F. STONE, publisher of I. F. STONES' Weekly, of Washington, D.C. Mr. STONE said that current condition were parallel to those existing in the South in the 20 years preceeding the Civil War. He told of how the Southerners who fought for abolition of slavery were subject to persecution and in many cases were forced to flee North. The present equivalent to the abolitionists is the people who fight for peace and civil rights, who are persecuted by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

"The second speaker, EMIL MAZEV, national secretary-treasurer of the United Auto Workers, spoke of the dangers of nuclear testing and recommended diverting all the money spent (world-wide) on defense and military testing to projects that would help humanity. He suggested founding a government agency that would be responsible for investigating all the ways to use our productive capacities in peacetime projects, such as better schools and housing. He recommended helping more undeveloped foreign countries become industrialized.

"Dr. SEYMOUR MELMAN, professor of Industrial management at Columbia University, was the third speaker. He said that when a military commander was intent on winning a battle, he would keep the troops united! When resigned to losing that battle, the commander would suggest everyman fend for himself. Dr. MELMAN used this analogy to show how the national shelter program was based on the possibility that this country might not survive a nuclear war, by having the citizens build their own shelters when ever possible."

entitled "SANE."

ReLct reflected that ISIDOR FEINSTEIN STONE of Washington, D.C. had spoken at the Third Annual Sane Nuclear Program at Cleveland on 5/30/62. The WFO is desirous of including this information in an report.

The Cleveland Office is requested to furnish WFO with a current thumbnail sketch of the Cleveland Committee for a Safe Nuclear Policy.

A characterization of ISIDOR FEINSTEIN STONE is as follows:

LOUIS EUDENZ (protect by request), advised on 6/26/50 that he had been acquainted with ISIDOR FEINSTEIN STONE for fifteen or twenty years. The source stated that STONE was not a member of the CP when he first met him but during the mid thirties, STONE did become a member of the CP. The source advised that he received information substantiating STONE's membership in the CP not only from CP functionaries such as ISRAEL ALTMAN and JACK STATCHEL, but also from [redacted]. The source also advised that STONE assisted the CP by hiding in the preparation of attacks on enemies of the CP.

The files of the Passport Office as of July 26, 1962, reflected that Isidor F. Stone was issued Passport C562102 on July 12, 1962. This passport was not valid for travel to Albania, Cuba, and those portions of China, Korea, and Viet-Nam under communist control.

In an application for this passport dated June 25, 1962, at Washington, D. C., the subject advised that he was born on December 24, 1907, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. His permanent residence was listed as 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C.

Stone listed his father as Bernard Feinstein who was born in 1886 in Russia. His mother was listed as Katherine Novack who was born in 1896 in Russia. Both parents were indicated to be United States citizens.

The subject stated that he was married on July 7, 1929, to Esther Mary Raisman who was born on December 17, 1908, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was indicated to be residing with the subject.

Stone planned on leaving the Port of New York by ship on about July 28, 1962. He planned on visiting France, Switzerland, Spain, and Italy for about four weeks for the purpose of pleasure and journalism.

The following physical description of Isidor Stone was obtained from his application for passport:

SYMBOLS

The last line of the subscribers stencilled name and address indicates:

1. Date of expiration
2. Length of subscription
3. New-straight renewal or old renewal
4. Name of paper
5. Whether direct or through an agent

*****

To determine length of sub we use A thru M (Omitting I)

A - 1 mo.	H - 8 mos.
B - 2 "	J - 9 "
C - 3 "	K - 10 "
D - 4 "	L - 11 "
E - 5 "	M - 1 year
F - 6 "	2M - 2 years
G - 7 "

"F" (6 months) and "M" (1 year) are most often found on "The Worker" subs, also "K" (10 months).

For fractions of a month,  $\frac{1}{2}$  is used.

EXAMPLE: 5-11-59 M W refers to a Sunday "Worker" Sub for one year, expiring May 11, 1959.

5-11-59  $\frac{1}{2}$  W refers to a 6 mo. "Worker" Sub which will run for an extra week over 6 months, and which expires May 11, 1959.

For subscriptions that are renewed within two weeks after expiration, the symbol "R" is used, to show that no copies are missed, e.g., 5-11-59 FR.

For subscriptions that were renewed after the date of expiration and the two weeks of grace, the symbol appears as RS, e.g., 5-11-59 RS which signifies that the subscription was renewed after expiration.

If the subscription is received through an agent of any kind, the symbol "A" is found at right of the plate, e.g., 5-11-59 M.W.A.

If "The Worker" subscription was a combination sub, the symbol D is included, e.g., 5-11-59 MW D.

ISIDOR FEINSTEIN STONE
SECURITY MATTER - C

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 11-3-97 BY SP8tz/paf

Two sources on October 17, 1962, made available a printed flyer reflecting that on October 19, 1962, at the First Congregational United Church of Christ, Fellowship Hall, 10th and G Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C., there was to be a meeting concerning "What About Cuba?", "What Should Be a Constructive United States Policy on Cuba?". The chairman of this meeting was indicated to be Reverend Andrew Leigh Gunn, Grace Methodist Church, Gaithersburg, Maryland. The speakers were listed as Doctor Daniel M. Berman, Professor, School of Government, American University, Washington, D. C., and I. F. Stone, Editor and Publisher of "I. F. Stone Weekly". This leaflet further indicated that the State Department has been invited to send a representative.

The sponsored organizations of this meeting were listed as:

Division of Peace and World Order of the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Church
Peace Action Center
Peace Committee, Washington Fields Meeting
Student Peace Union
Washington Committee For a Sane Nuclear Policy
Washington Pacifist Fellowship
Women Strike For Peace
Womens International League For Peace and Freedom,
D. C. Area Branch.

Concerning I. F. Stone, a third source advised on June 26, 1950, that he had been acquainted with Stone for 15 or 20 years. When the source first met Stone, he was not a member of the Communist Party (CP), but during the mid 30s Stone became a member of the CP. The source advised that he received information substantiating Stone's membership in the CP from such CP functionaries as Israel Amter and Jack Stachel. The source stated that Stone assisted the CP by aiding in the preparation of attacks on enemies of the CP.

APPENDIX

RE: ISIDOR FEINSTEIN STONE

WASHINGTON COMMITTEE FOR A
SANE NUCLEAR POLICY (WCSNP)

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that the WCSNP was organized in February, 1958, and that it has no headquarters, but utilizes Post Office Box 8068, Washington, D.C. On April 19, 1962, this source advised that the WCSNP is still functioning.

In a copy of the January, 1962, newsletter of the WCSNP, it is stated that "Sane's five steps to peace are:

1. Cessation of nuclear tests
2. Disarmament
3. A strengthened UN
4. Negotiation and settlement of major political differences
5. Cooperation or peaceful competition in economic aid to underdeveloped nations"

This newsletter also listed additional action in station, "Sane recommends the juking of the illusion of civil defense...."

On November 17, 1961, the source stated that the WCSNP had been criticized by the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (NCSNP), with which the WCSNP is affiliated. According to the source, this criticism came from the refusal of a member of the WCSNP Executive Board to call for participants in a picket line in front of the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D.C. It was pointed out by the NCSNP that it was obvious that the WCSNP was not supporting the May, 1960, NCSNP resolution which states that individuals having "Party discipline or allegiance to the Soviet or Chinese bloc" may not serve on a Sane Committee executive board.

On December 7, 1961, the source advised that Abe Bloom had been re-elected to the Executive Board of the WCSNP.

A second source, on February 23, 1955, advised that the source had no knowledge that Abe Bloom was a Communist Party (CP) member, but that Bloom was an individual who supported CP policies at that time.

It is pointed out that membership in the WCSNP does not, in itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the CP.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Reference is made to the memorandum dated October 12, 1962, at Washington, D.C.

G. P. Stone's biography in its issue of September 3, 1962, reflected that as of August 23, 1962, Stone was in New Zealand. Stone was listed as publisher and editor of this periodical.

In the file of the Domestic Operations Section of the Passport Office, Department of State, Washington, D.C., on October 14, 1962, reflected that the subject, in a letter to the Passport Office dated September 7, 1962, requested authorization for travel to Cuba for one time within the next three or four months. Stone requested the Passport Office that since there may be all kinds of delay due to visa, travel, and other difficulties, to make the permit valid for one year until the end of the year. Stone wanted to travel to Cuba to do a story on the current situation. The Passport Office on September 7, 1962, made the subject's passport valid for travel to Cuba.

On October 12, 1962, a Special Agent of the FBI, under suitable pretext, contacted the subject at his residence and office, 501P Kipling Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. At this time Stone advised that he had not been to Cuba for over a year, for about eighteen months.

The source advised that the subject spoke at the First Congregational United Church of Christ, 10th and G Streets, N.W., on October 12, 1962. One source stated that Stone gave some indication of the present situation in Cuba and the time of his future return and then directed his audience to further publications as a result of his policies.

of the United States. Among other things, he said that the United States would give over to the Russians everything in its possession of their water and oil. As a minimum, said Mr. Robert Stone, said that the United States should give up its nuclear weapons. Any change could occur in a short time. As a first positive step, Stone advocated sending the Cuban papers to Cuba and ignoring those existing by non-compliance, thereby in practice.

The source advised that Dr. Daniel H. Parsons of Accidental University, Washington, D.C., contacted him and that his main duty was war and the President's security should be established relations with Cuba. In October 1962, Parsons told the State Department concerning his foreign policy regarding Cuba and requested the government to determine what action was required to Cuba.

A third source on October 27, 1962, advised that Parsons was at the First Congregational Church on the afternoon of October 27, 1962. He spoke to an audience of various church groups who had participated earlier in discussions at the White House. According to this source, Parsons stated that he had no objection to the crisis as long as the United States did not become involved and threatening to Cuba directly.

"A meeting was sponsored by a number of organizations on Friday night, October 19, 1962, concerning the United States foreign policy toward Cuba. The speakers included: I. F. Stone, Daniel Berman and a State Department man.

"Daniel Berman surveyed what the United States foreign policy has been in the past. He stated that the United States always poses as being against the aggressor and that unless people come around to their side, we always feel that they are wrong.

"The State Department man did an excellent job of pointing out that the United States made every effort to get along with Castro and his government in Cuba but was unable to work out a satisfactory solution with him.

"I. F. Stone discussed the Monroe-Doctrine and took it apart piece-by-piece.

"Among the 400 to 500 people present were Bill and Betty Hays; David and Selma Rein; Hal Witt; Abe and Annie Bloom. Abe Bloom apparently had something to do with the organization of the meeting since he spent part of the time on the platform."

"October 22, 1962

"The Lower Shule held a regular school session on [redacted]
[redacted] at the Center, 4402 Georgia Ave. N. W., Washington, D. C. Approximately 17 Lower Shule students were there. Among the adults who were present at the Shule on [redacted] were the following:

[redacted] who lives on [redacted] Silver Spring, Md. talked with some of the Shule parents. He mentioned the meeting on Cuba held in a church at [redacted] on [redacted] was well attended and that it had been very interesting. He mentioned I. F. Stone and someone from the State Dept. spoke.

[redacted] who has in the past transported his children to Sunday Shule sessions, was not observed on October 21, 1962.

[redacted] mentioned to those adults waiting for the Shule to be over that on [redacted] the Center Committee would hold a 'burning of the mortgage' type of a social affair at 4402 Georgia Ave. N. W., Washington, D. C. This event is in honor of the 25th Anniversary of the Center Committee. He said all Shule people are invited."

This memorandum has been compared with the original statement and it is correct in substance.

On January 10, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the subject was present at a meeting of the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC) at 1450 Columbia Road, N.W., Washington, D.C., on January 9, 1968. The source reported that during the course of a private conversation between Stone and several unidentified persons about Cuba, one of the persons stated, "Why don't you tell Easy here because he was just in Cuba and he can tell you." (C)

The NCAHUAC is described in the appendix.

[REDACTED] Domestic Operations Section, Passport Office, Department of State, Washington, D.C., on January 14, 1968, advised that Stone's passport C 502102 was validated on September 7, 1962, for travel to Cuba. This passport was issued on July 12, 1962, and is valid for three years. The validation period for travel to Cuba is the same as the period for which the passport is valid.

APPENDIX

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE
HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Mr. J. P. Stone
5618 Nebraska Ave., N.W.
Washington 15, D.C.

Dear Mr. Stone:

Under separate cover via 1st class mail, we sent you a combined issue of the Peking Review, Nos. 47-48. Knowing that it sometimes takes months before the subscription we sent in will start arriving (and it will be via air mail from Peking, China), we will continue sending you copies as we receive them. a) Provided that it what you want and b) until such time as your sub becomes operational and you start receiving it.

Should this arrangement not meet with your approval, please let us know. By the way, we can invoice you for 4 issues at once rather than each issue singly.

Enclosed please find a new catalog we just put out.

Thank you kindly for your subscription.

Sincerely yours,

Philip Frankfeld

I am sorry I have not had the opportunity of being called before the HUAC for questioning and envy Mrs. WILSON her experience: I should like to say a few things to congressman WALTER face to face. I recall the time that the French liner, Liberte docked at New York on Christmas Eve. Her crew had been looking forward to spending Christmas Eve on the town, but HUAC suspected one and all of being enemies and subversives because at that time communist party was the dominant one in France. So they all had to stay on board. This shows you the ridiculous lengths to which HUAC will go. I would like to point out the high cost of suspicion - a commodity more frequently found at the summit than at the grassroots. Take the Cuba situation. This called for mere co-existence. And what is co-existence? I looked it up and it means to exist at the same time: there is nothing subversive in that. And after all the rumpus we are co-existing with Cuba anyway. And the same applies to Russia and China. They say that every great man has some woman on whom he depends; but we don't hear anything about the men who support the great women - I give you BILL TAYLOR. The thing that impresses me most about DAGMAR WILSON is the way she does and says dynamic and world-shaking things with such ease and simplicity. I would like to suggest her for the Nobel Peace Prize. I am sure she will take her place in history.

"DAGMAR WILSON: I am reminded of an incident I witnessed once in a group of children. Little Johnnie had hold of a board he was going to use to build a house. It was too heavy for him to move, so he called out for help. A little girl came and took hold near him; she couldn't move it either but she could comfort him. Then another one took hold of the other end of the board and that was better; soon a lot of them came and between them they got the house built. The peace movement is like that. One cannot do it alone, but then another is attracted and more follow.

"I could not have built WSP alone - it is all the rest of you who have done it. The trouble with Kennedy is that he has no idea of cooperation with anyone - most of all with our so-called enemies. He wants to win. He has a cold war that he thinks he can win. If everyone works together toward one goal - peace, then everyone wins. But Kennedy doesn't want that: he wants to win. So we do not talk about disarmament - we talk about winning. We are buying time - whatever that means. And what are we buying it for? to make the communists accept our form of democracy; to bring Russia to her knees; to widen the rift between Russia and China. China does not have the bomb as yet; but small comfort it will be to us when she does get it that we have helped widen the rift between her and Khrushchev. I am sure that we will not be able to break the Russians in any way. They can hold out longer than we can; time is on their side. And consider what the cold war is doing to us; and the longer it goes on the worse things get - the fear, the worry, the lowered moral tone; the crime; death and destruction of our children and the terrible deformities. The week-end of the Cuba crisis was a terrible one. There was a demonstration in Washington at which I. F. STONE was the main speaker; he was in despair; he said he expected invasion at any time; he felt that something must be done that day and that tomorrow might be too late. HOMER JACK went to the White House. People are beginning to think that the U.S. is no longer for peace and that we may be planning to launch an aggressive war. Did you see the reaction of the children at the time of the Cuba crisis? They ran home from school saying if we are all to die, Mommie, I want to die with you. And listen to the children now, talking about winning. My child said, if we don't get to the moon first it will be awful. When I said I thought it didn't matter who got there first, my child said 'Mommie, you don't talk like Kennedy at all; you talk like Jefferson or Paine.' And since Cuba there has been a stepping up of civil defense. But you can't fool the children - they know it all phoney. We have to condition the thinking of our people to make them think we could really win a war. That is no way to treat human beings - to control their thinking like that. And then the "muzzling of the press; that is intolerable. I watched Kennedy at the press conference and saw him hesitate when he was asked how much longer silence was to be imposed and then he said when the crisis is over. That is more than we can stand. I can tell you the Russians stand a better chance to live through a war than we have. We are having to develop a new language to talk about the unthinkable. It is truly shocking. In Russia no one is thinking or talking about war; they have nothing to hide; they are too busy growing. While we are slipping back they are growing. In Russia the beatniks are trusted and made to feel useful and are uplifted and are given work to do. That sort of thing is not going on here. When I arrived in Russia I expected that everything would seem strange and different - but not at all. We were welcomed most cordially and escorted to a lovely hotel where we had every modern comfort, good food and pleasant company. We went to the Kremlin and found none of the terrible things we had been led to expect. It is like a fairy palace - inside it is most modern with escalators and modern lighting and a magnificent ball room. And here at the international peace conference were American women, WSP and others, and mountains of caviar and vodka. And I heard my name on the microphone. Everything was utterly fascinating. We saw everything and not just what they wanted us to see. And the people - young and old - followed us in the streets asking questions and talking wistfully of the time during the war when we were allies. Peace was the only thing they talked about. No country so busy making propaganda for peace can be planning a war. But they have to be prepared in case they are attacked. They know that the common people of the world have nothing to gain by war but much to lose. We found no indications whatever that the Russians are thinking of war. Then we went to Geneva and were told, don't waste time here - go home and work for peace in the U.S.

"TAYLOR GRANT introduced ETHEL TAYLOR's friend ELSIE LEVITAN: The holidays just past mark an event of great importance to the world. Both the Star of Bethlehem and the Star of David are symbolic of the same great event - the turning of the sun northward; the darkest time of the year is past and light floods the world bringing hope and the promise of great joy. The giving of gifts to children is a very ancient custom and symbolizes this new joy. What gifts did you give your children? Did you ask them what they wanted? At the time of the Cuban crisis did you listen to the children? My son said, I am scared and I said I am scared too. Children wept in clusters in the school rooms and college students rushed home to be with their parents to die. The children who try to learn how to talk tough about winning but whose food is sprinkled with atomic dust. The children say, give us this day, and WSP is working to give them what they ask; in the White House, in the U.N. in Acra, Tokyo, Geneva, Moscow all over the world we are working for peace. Everywhere people say we must work together for peace. We are weaving a gift for our children; the children who say not when I grow up but if I grow up. You will find envelopes at your places; the money you give will say to the children there will not be death but peace and life. We cannot wait: if not now - when?

"TAYLOR GRANT read a great many telegrams sent to ETHEL TAYLOR from many prominent people all over the country and beyond.

"ETHEL TAYLOR: When you all stood up I thought you were all leaving to make the same train. I am overwhelmed and grateful especially to the Men's Auxiliary and very much to my own husband who has stood by me loyally while I picketed the White House and distributed pamphlets in the rain. And I want to thank all the other husbands who have fed the children and put them to bed and cooked and washed and answered the telephone and have done all the other chores at home so that "their wives were free to do WSP work for peace. I also wish to thank all the members of WILPF and SANE who are here tonight. On November 1, 1961 we made our first strike for peace in Washington. 700 women were told by Senator SCOTT that we ought to pledge support for the government; but we have travelled far beyond that point - we pledge support for the human race. The SEABEES say they stop at nothing however difficult - but WSP doesn't talk about it, it just does the impossible. When the women who went to Geneva came home and wanted to see the President, he refused to see them. They said they would wait until he was ready to see them. So they held a vigil at the White House. The rules are that you have to keep walking and that there must always be a policeman present. So this night [redacted] there were two of us left walking in the dark and rain. Finally the cop came over and said, 'Truce! If you will just go home I can go and go and get myself a cup of coffee.' So we took pity on him and left.

"VINCENT YOUNG presented to ETHEL TAYLOR on behalf of the Men's Auxiliary of the WSP a gold bracelet with a gold disc inscribed with the emblem of SWP.

"At the commencement of the dinner DOROTHY HUTCHINSON had given the invocation - a long prayer of thanks-giving and hope for the future."

A Confidential Source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on February 5, 1963, advised that an open meeting of the Women Strike for Peace (WSP) was held at the Ethical Culture Auditorium, 1906 Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, Pa., on February 1, 1963. This was the opening session of the East Coast Regional Conference of WSP held February 1 - 3, 1963. Most of the sessions were held at the Friends Select School, 17th Street and Benjamin Franklin Parkway, Philadelphia, Pa.

ETHEL TAYLOR presided and stated that there was an overflow meeting in the room upstairs who were listening to the session by means of a loud speaker. TAYLOR said that delegates were present from nearly all the eastern states. She mentioned that I. F. STONE, who had been scheduled to speak, was ill and could not come and that Mrs. BLANCHE POSNER of Scarsdale, N. Y., who had been before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) in Washington, D. C., would speak in STONE's place. TAYLOR also mentioned that Canon COLLINS of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, and a leader of the British Disarmament Movement, would speak at 2124 Chestnut Street, at 8:30 p.m., February 12, 1963.

WILLIAM FITTS RYAN, Congressman from New York, who had voted against the appropriation for the HCUA, spoke on the subject "A Congressman Looks At Disarmament." The substance of Congressman Ryan's speech is set forth below:

EAST COAST REGIONAL CONFERENCE
WOMEN STRIKE FOR PEACE,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., 2/1-3/63

The WSP is a remarkable, efficient and forward-looking group and one through which a great force for disarmament and peace can flow. On September 21, 1961, a small group met in Dagmar Wilson's living room and has now grown to 500,000 women dedicated to peace. There is only one flaw and that is that it puts me in a position of inequality - for I am only a man. Your movement has proved that ordinary American citizens can translate their concern about the world, and especially the children, into effective action for the welfare of mankind. Man has now the power to build a world free from disease and poverty; he also has the power to destroy it utterly. Which will he choose to do? WSP is leading the movement against destruction. Our world has reached such a degree of complexity that citizens have less and less immediate contact with government and less and less control over its actions. In 1812, the man in the street was debating intelligently the issues involved in the British interference with our shipping and was in a position to make suggestions to his government. Now, none of us is informed enough to know what is going on and events happen in such rapid succession that most of us have a feeling of helplessness and frustration. In spite of this, there is much to be done and the fight has only just started. WSP is concerned to get action and they demand results. Today we stand on the brink of disaster - we live in a time when bombs come off the assembly line, we face annihilation by mistake, we are threatened by war by accident - by reaction to false alarm. Men and machines are both faulty and some finger may tremble and loose on us unthinkable consequences. Every lesson of history points to our being on the way to obliteration - that is, unless some rebel group arises to bring relief.

I think there is hope. Points of view are changing. The future of the West depends on our achieving disarmament in time. The road to disarmament will be long; the fight for it must be stepped up; we must get our best minds to work upon it.

EAST COAST REGIONAL CONFERENCE
WOMEN STRIKE FOR PEACE
PHILADELPHIA, PA., 2/1 - 3/63

The U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency has not lived up to expectations. The appropriation for it is infinitesimal - only  $6\frac{1}{2}\phi$  per U. S. citizen - less than what is spent on our fisheries. We need leadership for disarmament and peace. Man faces the supreme decision - to destroy or to develop.

Following RYAN's speech there was a question and answer period. Among the questions asked of Congressman RYAN were the following:

Is it not true that the HCUA arose in response to aggressive subversion by GUS HALL, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN and others? RYAN stated that the HCUA suppresses freedom of speech and assembly. It has no business investigating subversion - that lies with the judiciary and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Another question concerned how the WSP could prevent the HCUA from getting their appropriation to carry on their work. RYAN answered that the HCUA asks for a specific appropriation each year - in 1961 six Congressmen voted against it and in 1962 only two Congressmen voted against it.

Another individual asked the question as to whether it would be better to form a third party to work for peace. RYAN answered that it is better to work within the framework of our two party system than to have a third party created around the peace issue. He recommended that "peace-minded candidates" be nominated within the two major parties.

BLANCHE POSNER was the next speaker. The substance of her remarks was as follows:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

EAST COAST REGIONAL CONFERENCE
WOMEN STRIKE FOR PEACE
PHILADELPHIA, PA., 2/1-3/63

The reason why I am opposed to the HCUA is that women cannot fight for peace in a country where there is such a committee tolerated. It investigates you when you infiltrate into the peace movement. When I was subpoenaed, I was scared to death - but when I saw the really pathetic and helpless men sitting up there, I had no other feeling but contempt. Doyle was chewing on a cigar and reading a newspaper and the other two were no better. Doyle talked about the Communist conspiracy and asked if I saw the copy of the Communist Manifesto. I did not answer his questions. I took the Fifth Amendment forty times and set a record. I did it because if I had answered only one question, I would have let myself in for naming names and this is not a decent thing to do. Doyle said the people in the peace movement had an exaggerated concern for peace. When the women laughed, he weakly warned against any demonstrations but we went on applauding.

The HCUA committee soon looked lonely, badgered and miserable. We remembered how they voted against the U.N. bond issue and the Disarmament Agency. Wearing daisies in our hats was a far cry from a Communist infiltration, but they could not see it. Someone has said that the Fifth Amendment is the greatest attempt to become civilized that was ever made. It is not meant to hide the guilty but to protect the innocent. Total result? We would like to send the HCUA a vote of thanks, they gave us wonderful publicity. We received letters, checks and telegrams of praise from all over the world. In South America, New Zealand and Australia, in Morocco, Holland, England demonstrations were made at the American Embassies. Wonderful victory parties were given for us. One reason we have been so successful is that we strike a common denominator in our care for children. We do not seek to overthrow our Government or to serve any foreign government. Our greatest reward was when the men asked if they could form a men's auxiliary. We are delighted and we hope for a Men Strike for Peace.

POSNER was asked if she thought the HCUA would hold another hearing concerning the activities of the WSP. She replied "No, I think they have had it."

A second Confidential Source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on May 7, 1962, identified GUS HALL as General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA; and ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN as National Chairman, CPUSA.

A third Confidential Source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on February 5, 1963, advised that on that date [redacted] indicated that she had attended the East Coast Regional Conference of the WSP. She told [redacted] that "this is the broadest and biggest thing we have had in this country for a long time."

A fourth Confidential Source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 30, 1963, that [redacted] is District Chairman, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) and [redacted] is Organization Secretary, CPEPD.

The third Confidential Source continued as follows:

[redacted] stated that "they (WSP) have vision, imagination and outlook." [redacted] reported that there were at least 500 women present. She said that on Saturday (February 2, 1963) there were 87 delegates present from other states, including Massachusetts, New York and Washington, D.C., in addition to the Pennsylvania delegates.

[redacted] told [redacted] that she had made an outline of the conference and gave [redacted] a copy of the WSP "order of business" of the WSP Conference.

[redacted] outlined the various programs of WSP as follows:

Peace

A new two year action program has been organized, namely, "Peace - Peoples Emergency Action Campaign Everywhere." This is a nationwide organization and is being sponsored by church and community groups and will last through 1964. A petition campaign is to begin in May (1963). WSP intends to carry out a number of peace demonstrations at the U.N. in New York City.

Local demonstrations have also been planned. Participants will go to telegraph offices following these demonstrations and send telegrams to President KENNEDY. Local delegations are scheduled to visit former President DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER; New York Governor NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER; Pennsylvania Governor WILLIAM W. SCRANTON and others.

On Sunday, February 3, 1963, WSP issued a statement in favor of a test ban treaty. Educational material concerning the dangerous effects of Strontium 90 will be given wide distribution. Emphasis was placed on rallying support of women scientists, such as President KENNEDY's doctor and people of like stature.

WSP has decided to have a full time lobbyist in Geneva to afford full coverage of developments there; also a full time lobbyist at the U.N. GABOW stated that according to WSP officials, the lobbyists at the U.N. have already had several meetings with the heads of delegates of neutral nations.

WSP also passed a resolution to select women to attend international peace conferences; the WSP will collect data on peace developments in other countries; they will participate in the 1965 World's Fair and will establish a peace center and solicit participation of "all other nations."

WSP will institute an educational program calling for shelters in schools; a booklet is to be issued to help people working in the peace field. A group of British workers are to tour the United States. This group is presently touring Europe.

[redacted] described the program of the WSP for disarmament as "tremendous." WSP's proposed community conferences will attempt to involve community leaders, including businessmen, Chambers of Commerce, etc.

EAST COAST REGIONAL CONFERENCE
WOMEN STRIKE FOR PEACE
PHILADELPHIA, PA., 2/1-3/63

Political Action

[redacted] told [redacted] that the WSP has exerted pressure on a non-partisan level. WSP has decided that a third political party should not be established but that candidates should be selected who are sympathetic to the aims of the WSP. They agreed that a lobbying committee be set up in Washington, D.C., to buttonhole Congressmen. Pressure will also be put on officials of the U.S. Public Health Service in an attempt to have them issue material concerning the dangers of radiation. WSP feels that any achievements they make will have to be done by working with the two major political parties. WSP is considering supporting legislation permitting persons to pay only that part of their income tax which is used for peaceful means. The WSP is supporting the program to have members attach a protest to their income tax forms protesting the use of taxes for armaments.

In conclusions [redacted] told [redacted] "we certainly have to do a job on this."

APPENDIX

World Books

According to the records of the Foreign Agents Registration Section, United States Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., PHILIP FRANKFELD, doing business as WORLD BOOKS, 747 Broadway, New York 3, New York, filed a registration statement dated September 26, 1961, pursuant to Section 2 of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended. He listed the names and addresses of his foreign principals as follows:

[redacted]
[redacted] Moscow, USSR

b6
b7C

[redacted] Peking, China

He stated the nature and purpose of his representation of each Foreign Principal was "to import books, periodicals, and publications sold by foreign principals, to advertise and promote sales of same; to obtain subscriptions for such periodicals."

A source advised on March 22, 1961, that GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, United States of America, (CP, USA), and PHIL BART, CP National Organizational Secretary, had stated that they desired that PHILIP FRANKFELD be reinstated in the CP.

A second source advised on April 21, 1961, that on April 1, 1961, the Chairman of the Maryland - District of Columbia CP District Board had addressed a letter to GUS HALL noting that the Board was in favor of reinstatement of FRANKFELD in the CP as a rank and file member.

A third source advised on March 30, 1962, that WORLD BOOKS, New York City, is a CP, USA literature outlet.

I.P. Stone
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Stone:

We are continuing to send you the various issues of the Peking Review which arrive irregularly and sharply reduced in quantity to our store.

Please notify us as soon as your own copy starts arriving in Washington, D.C. We did specifically request that your copy be sent via AIR MAIL.

We ordered 200 copies of THE SINO-INDIAN BORDER QUESTION, color photo album, published in November, 1962. All we received to date has been eight (8) copies. We have placed one copy aside until we hear further from you.

It contains approximately 12 to 13 maps of the disputed border area, 14 color to six statements and articles (editorials) published between Nov. 7, 1962 and Oct. 27, 1962.

It is a paperback. It retails for $1.00, 134 pp.

Should you want to receive this last copy we have in stock, please reply. It will not be sent without your prior consent.

Sincerely yours,

Philip Franklin
WORLD PUBLISHING CO.

P.S. We also just received a brochure entitled: The Kennedy Administration Unashed. It was published in late 1962 and contains a number of editorials and articles published from 1961 through 1962. It retails for $5.00.

"1/26/63

"Thursday, Jan. 24, 1963 - CHARLIE PIPER attended a Forum meeting at the Saugus Unitarian-Universalist Church at which Rev. DONALD LOTHROP was the speaker.

"Some of those attending were CHARLIE PIPER, SOL FISHER, NICK DENESUK, REV. DONALD LOTHROP, REV. ROBERT GREENE, LEW GORDON, Mr. and Mrs. ALLEN SAWYER, Mr. and Mrs. ALAN CROWELL.

"Rev. LOTHROP told of his past association with the Saugus Church. He mentioned past ministers of the Saugus Church whom he had had association with.

"In mentioning Rev. MOSES WALKER, a recent past minister at Saugus, he said that someone needs to put a harness on MOSES and stay with him to keep it on.

"Rev. LOTHROP said his parents were married in a Universalist Church.

"Rev. LOTHROP said that many people are so against Socialism that they are not willing to read and learn what is going on. He said that when things do develop they are amazed and cannot understand.

"He said that they only read such stories that tell them that things are bad in Cuba, in Russia and China - that people are starving in China. He said that these same people would say you are subversive if you tried to get the truth as to what is happening in other parts of the world.

"He said that he believes in our system and would not want anything else and would like to see our system all over the world.

"Rev. LOTHROP made reference to I. F. Stone who recently made a trip to Cuba by going to Mexico and flying to Cuba from Mexico.

"Rev. LOTHROP suggested that we subscribe to 'I.F. Stone's Weekly' as he considers I. F. Stone a fair reporter who reports things as he sees them.

"Rev. LOTHROP said that I. F. Stone did not find things in Cuba as the American press has reported. He said that he did not find the hardship there as people have read here.

"Rev. LOTHROP said that President Kennedy is a captive in his own country. He said that if President Kennedy is soft on the Soviet Union that BARRY GOLDWATER and the conservatives will jump on him.

"He said that Khrushchev actually helped Pres. Kennedy when he took the so-called missiles out of Cuba. He said Khrushchev took the pressure of the conservatives off of Pres. Kennedy.

"Rev. LOTHROP said that there were no missiles in Cuba that had the war heads. He said that they were empty large cans not capable of being fired.

"During the question period Frances Crowell asked Rev. LOTHROP if Socialism wasn't the only solution to automation.

"Rev. LOTHROP did not give an answer to this but said that automation was a very dangerous situation in this country and that those in power are bringing about the stockpiling of tremendous amounts of armaments in warehouses and they do not dare to stop doing this because if they don't there will be mass unemployment in the country.

"He said that this is no solution to automation but is just stalling the day when they will have to meet the situation.

"Rev. LOTHROP was speaking to me after the meeting and he gave me the address of I. F. Stone's Weekly and told me when I write to I. F. Stone to tell him to start my subscription with the Cuba series and tell Mr. Stone that I had talked to Rev. LOTHROP.

"Rev. LOTHROP told me that he has a house and about 180 acres of land in Maine and that he enjoys raising vegetables there in the summer. He said that he does this all by hand with a hoe. He said that he also cuts his own wood for the stove on his land.

LEADS:

It is recommended that an attempt be made through established sources to locate the whereabouts of Rev. DONALD LOTHROP'S summer home in Maine.

DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D.C.

I. BACKGROUND

The March 4, 1963 issue of "I. F. Stone's Bi-Weekly" reflects that this paper is published and edited by I. F. STONE at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. It describes itself as an independent bi-weekly, with the circulation manager as being ESTHER M. STONE.

~~SECRET~~

The 1962-63 Washington, D.C. Telephone Directory listed the office and residence of STONE as 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W.

On March 19, 1963, a Special Agent of the FBI, under suitable pretext, ascertained from an unidentified woman at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W. that I. F. STONE maintained his office and residence at that address.

IC [redacted] on March 1, 1963, ascertained b6 that there was no additional information concerning the subject b7C in the files of the Credit Bureau, Incorporated, Washington, D.C.

ID [redacted] on March 1, 1963, ascertained that the files of the United States Park Police, Washington, D.C., contained no record of STONE.

On March 1, 1963, SP [redacted] determined that no record was contained in the files of the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D.C. concerning the subject between the period March 14, 1962 to March 1, 1963; it is to be noted that at all times an indefinite number of unidentified records are out of file and unavailable for review.

II. STATEMENTS MADE BY STONE

The "Yale Daily News," a student newspaper at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, in its issue of March 16, 1962, on Page 4 indicated that I. F. STONE had addressed the Yale Law Forum at the Yale Law School on March 15, 1962. STONE's topic was "Is Our Policy On Cuba Consistent With Our Stand On World Law." STONE called for a new magnanimous policy toward the Cuban communists. He called the training of the Cuban invasion army a violation of our neutrality laws, and said that the expulsion of Cuba from the Organization of American States (OAS) and the stifling of debate on the Cuban question in the United Nations were breaches of world law.

This article advised that STONE admitted his arguments were based on "a background of sympathy for CASTRO and the Cubans." He termed this "a sympathy almost more risky than sympathy for the Russians today." During a question period, STONE condemned the Central Intelligence Agency as an organization dedicated to "international crime and lawlessness"; the State Department as "bureaucrats who think very much like the bureaucrats in Moscow"; and the United States' restrictions on travel in communist countries as "an American Iron Curtain."

WF T-1, on October 22, 1962, advised that STONE was one of the speakers at a meeting of several peace groups at the First Congregational United Church of Christ, 10th and G Streets, N.W., on October 19, 1962. This meeting concerned Cuba and the foreign policy of the United States. STONE stated that the United States forced Cuba over to the Russians by invoking an economic blockade of their sugar and oil. As a minimum course of action, the subject said the United States should have patience because many changes could occur in a short time. As a more positive step, he advocated sending the Peace Corps to Cuba and honoring those treaties of non-intervention already in existence.

WF T-2 on October 25, 1962, in reference to the subject's speaking at the above-mentioned meeting, stated that STONE referred to the Russian Eastern Europe satellites and the cruel repression of the Hungarian uprising. The subject stated that the United States should be patient and negotiate with Cuba, and, by reopening trade with that country, we would force the Russians to compete economically with us.

On February 3, 1963, STONE was the speaker at a Women's International League For Peace and Freedom meeting, which was held at the Plaza Hotel, Washington, D.C. STONE had recently returned from a trip to Cuba, and he made the following points in his talk:

- (1) That the food was not tasty in Cuba, but there was plenty of it.
- (2) That a substantial number of the people are for CASTRO.
- (3) That in discussing the Alliance for Progress, STONE noted that what the United States needs is CASTROs in the other Latin American countries to make the social reforms that the Alliance calls for. He noted that the "drifting" United States policy on Cuba is helping CASTRO to succeed.

- (4) He agreed that socialism and/or communism were correct for the Latin American countries.
- (5) Some of the Cuban refugees were workers, peasants, and people of the "left." STONE said that CASTRO has made exiles out of five Cuban communists.
- (6) That Russia's march into Hungary was brutal.
- (7) Now that the Cubans strongly dislike the Russians for removing the missiles, the United States should take the initiative and agree to diplomatic relations and trade with Cuba so as to create a "TITO" in the Caribbean.

(WF T-2 on February 8,

WF T-2 on October 27, 1962, advised that on that afternoon, STONE spoke at the First Congregational United Church of Christ to an audience of various peace groups, who earlier had participated in picket lines at the White House concerning the Cuban Crisis. STONE was to have discussed the Cuban situation, but said that he had no solution to the crisis at hand and had nothing to say. According to the source, his brief talk was most demoralizing and upsetting to those assembled.

III. ORGANIZATIONS

A. Committee for Latin-American Understanding (CLAU)

The CLAU is described in the appendix.

STONE recently advised that he did not want to be chairman of a meeting being sponsored by the CLAU at which J. P. MORRAY was scheduled to be the speaker. STONE felt that if he chaired this meeting, it would be taken as a sign that he endorses MORRAY, whereas he does not agree with him on certain issues. STONE said that in regard to disarmament, MORRAY felt that all that is Soviet is good and all that is United States is bad. The subject felt that based on his experience at Geneva, Switzerland, there is a lot of bad on both sides.

B. National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (CAHUAC)

The CAAHUC is described in the appendix.

WF T-4, on January 7, 1963, stated that STONE was present at a meeting held on January 7, 1963 at the Calvary Methodist Church, 1459 Columbia Road, N.W. This meeting had been called by FRANK WILKINSON to discuss the activities of the CAAHUC.

In regard to FRANK WILKINSON [redacted]

[redacted] CALIFORNIA, who was a member of the Communist Party (CP) from approximately [redacted] and who during a part of this time furnished information to the FBI, advised on September 17, 1952, that WILKINSON was a member of the Los Angeles County, California, CP as of September, 1952.

C. Washington Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (WCSNP)

The WCSNP is described in the appendix.

WF T-4, on March 3, 1963, advised that I. F. STONE was to be one of the speakers to be utilized by the WCSNP.

D. Washington Area Committee for the Abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee (WACAHUAC)

The WACAHUAC is described in the appendix.

WF T-13 on March 5, 1963, advised that STONE was present at a WACAHUAC sponsored meeting on March 4, 1963, at 4863 Potomac Avenue, N.W. The main portion of this meeting was taken up with the showing of the new film "Committee on Un-American Activities."

IV. FOREIGN TRAVEL

on April 9, 1962, reflected that on February 1, 1962, the Passport Office decided that they had to permit STONE to visit Cuba on his current passport, he being recognized as a newsmen. STONE had desired to visit Cuba in February, 1962, to write a piece on the present atmosphere there, and on the possibilities for the resumption of peaceful relations with the United States.

The files of the Passport Office, as of July 26, 1962, as reviewed by SA [redacted] reflected that STONE was issued Passport C562102 on July 12, 1962. This passport was not valid for travel to Albania, Cuba, and those portions of China, Korea and Viet-Nam under communist control.

b7C

In an application for this passport dated June 25, 1962 at Washington, D.C., the subject advised that he was born on December 24, 1907 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. His permanent residence was listed as 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W. and his occupation as that of newspaper man.

STONE stated that he was married on July 7, 1929 to ESTHER MARY RAISMAN, who was born on December 17, 1908 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was indicated to be residing with the subject.

STONE planned on leaving the Port of New York on about July 28, 1962. He planned on visiting France, Switzerland, Spain and Italy for about four weeks for the purpose of pleasure and journalism.

The files of the Domestic Operations Section of the Passport Office on October 18, 1962, reflected that the subject, in a letter to the Passport Office dated September 7, 1962, requested authorization for travel to Cuba for some time within the next three or four months. STONE requested the Passport Office that since there may be all kinds of delay due to visa, travel, and other difficulties, to make the permit good any time until the end of the year. STONE advised the Passport Office that he wanted to travel to Cuba to do a story on the current situation. The Passport Office, on September 7, 1962, validated the subject's passport for travel to Cuba.

WP 1-4 on January 10, 1963, advised that at a meeting of the NCIAHAC at Washington, D.C. on January 7, 1963, an unidentified person, who was among several others engaged in a (C)

WF T-12 on December 21, 1962, made available the information that PHILIP FRANKFIELD of World Books, New York City, had recently expressed his belated thanks for everything that STONE had done on behalf of the Smith Act defendants in general, and himself in particular over the years.

World Books and PHILIP FRANKFIELD are described in the appendix.

Confidential informants who are familiar with some phases of CP activity in the District of Columbia in March, 1963, had no additional information concerning the activities of the subject.

On September 21, 1961, a source advised that the Washington, D.C. chapter of the FPCC was formed on that date.

On May 3, 1962, this source advised that the Washington, D.C. chapter is affiliated with and supports the aims and objectives of the FPCC, whose headquarters are in New York.

On October 8, 1962, this source advised that at a recent meeting of the Washington Chapter of the FPCC, then known as the Institute for the Improvement of Inter-American Relations, Washington Chapter (IIAR), it was decided to change the name of the organization to the Committee for Latin-American Understanding (CLAU).

The purpose of the name change is to enable CLAU to broaden its activity to include all of Latin America and make it more acceptable to persons who would be reluctant to join or engage in activities of an organization which limited its activity to support of the present government in Cuba.

On October 11, 1962, this source advised that CLAU intends to maintain its affiliation with the FPCC.

Source also advised that CLAU is in existence and holding meetings as of October 4, 1962.

The FPCC is characterized separately in the appendix.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC):

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

"Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p.5)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

WASHINGTON AREA COMMITTEE FOR THE ABOLITION OF THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE (WACAHUAC)

A source advised during June-August, 1961, that the WACAHUAC was founded at a public meeting in Washington, D. C., on June 8, 1961, to campaign for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA); an election of officers was held on June 23, 1961, with Selma Rein being elected as Secretary; Rein has been in control of the organization since that time; Rein does not mind if individuals connected in the past with organizations cited publicly as being communist dominated or controlled work with WACAHUAC, provided they are not publicly identified in this regard; and the organization's policy statement, as rewritten by Joseph Forer, was accepted by the WACAHUAC Executive Board in August, 1961.

On September 12, 1962, a second source advised the WACAHUAC is affiliated with the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (identified elsewhere in the appendix) and is still in existence.

Selma Rein was identified by a third source, on January 21, 1954, as a then current Communist Party (CP) member. On February 28, 1956, she appeared before the HCUA and refused to answer questions concerning past or present CP membership.

Joseph Forer is one of the attorneys who has represented the CP, USA, before the U.S. Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court. In September, 1959, a fourth source advised that a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA, had recently referred to Forer as "one of the most important communists in Washington, D. C."

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that the WCSNP was organized in February, 1958, and that it has no headquarters, but utilizes Post Office Box 8068, Washington, D.C. On April 19, 1962, this source advised that the WCSNP is still functioning.

In a copy of the January, 1962, newsletter of the WCSNP, it is stated that "Sane's five steps to peace are:

1. Cessation of nuclear tests
2. Disarmament
3. A strengthened UN
4. Negotiation and settlement of major political differences
5. Cooperation or peaceful competition in economic aid to underdeveloped nations"

This newsletter also listed additional action in stating, "Sane recommends the juking of the illusion of civil defense..."

On November 17, 1961, the source stated that the WCSNP had been criticized by the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (NCSNP), with which the WCSNP is affiliated. According to the source, this criticism came from the refusal of a member of the WCSNP Executive Board to call for participants in a picket line in front of the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D.C. It was pointed out by the NCSNP that it was obvious that the WCSNP was not supporting the May, 1960, NCSNP resolution which states that individuals having "Party discipline or allegiance to the Soviet or Chinese bloc" may not serve on a Sane Committee executive board.

On December 7, 1961, the source advised that Abe Bloom had been re-elected to the Executive Board of the WCSNP.

A second source, on February 23, 1955, advised that the source had no knowledge that Abe Bloom was a Communist Party (CP) member, but that Bloom was an individual who supported CP policies at that time.

It is pointed out that membership in the WCSNP does not, in itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the CP.

She said if she had to do it all over again she would without any regret. She also mentioned that she is starting immediately to work on her third novel, but in order to do this there must be a market for her second novel and she had no doubt that people of America were behind her.

[redacted] Belmont Plaza Hotel, Lexington Avenue at 49th Street, New York City, advised that sometime during March, 1963, a [redacted] of International Publishers, Park Avenue, New York City, contracted to rent the Baroque Room at the hotel for the evening of March 29, 1963. The purpose of the scheduled affair was in the form of a reception for ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN.

Early during the week of March 29, 1963, the hotel received a telephone call from the 17th Precinct, New York City Police Department, inquiring as to the nature of the affair to be held at the hotel on March 29, 1963. The Police advised that they had received a request for a permit to picket the hotel from the American National Party for the evening of March 29, 1963. Upon bringing this information to the attention of the hotel management, it was decided that the hotel would cancel out the affair and so advised International Publishers by telegram on March 28, 1963. During the morning of March 29, 1963, International Publishers applied for an injunction in the New York City Supreme Court. Justice Klein reserved decision, but upon bringing the matter to the Court of Appeals, the latter court ruled that since it would be very difficult to obtain another site on such short notice, an injunction was being issued making the hotel fulfill its part of the contract.

Accordingly, the affair was held as scheduled from approximately 7:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. on March 29, 1963, and was attended by approximately 400 "old and sickly looking" people. The hotel was paid $150 for the room, $150 for refreshments and $30 for tips, et cetera, for a total of $330, which was paid in the form of a check from International Publishers written on an account at the Amalgamated Bank, Union Square, New York City. [redacted] said that during the evening, he observed approximately 10-15 people carrying signs picketing the entrance to the hotel.

1. Booklet captioned "Cuba Time for Restraint and Fortitude" by JAMES D. WARBURG, 9/20/62. Additional copies are available from the Current Affairs Press, 34 East 70th Street, New York 21, N.Y. This is a six-page booklet in which WARBURG contends that the Soviet action in Cuba was aimed at provoking American aggression in Cuba and destroying us as champions of peace under law. He said the United States should take no action to remove Russians from Cuba.

2. A two-page leaflet issued by WILPF which is a reprint from the New York Herald Tribune, Thursday, 10/25/62, of the article "Blockade Proclaimed" by WALTER LIPPMANN. This article gives various aspects of the Cuba blockade and "similarity" between our base in Turkey and the Russian base in Cuba.

3. Pamphlet captioned "The Cuban Crisis" issued by the Committee for Non-Violent Action, 325 Lafayette Street, New York 12, N.Y., setting forth the "Policy Statement of the National Committee for Non-Violent Action." The pamphlet recommends the United States renounce all intentions to invade or support the invasion of Cuba, lift blockade and rescind all other commerce and travel restrictions to Cuba, cease reconnaissance over Cuba and all other forms of surveillance, close Guantanamo Naval Base, destroy all military equipment there and withdraw its garrison to the United States...

4. Copy of the 11/5/62 issue of "I. F. Stone's Weekly," 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W., Washington 15, D. C. This issue concerns the Cuban situation and sets out various "peace proposals" and proposes concessions on the part of the United States in Cuba. One subtitle is captioned "Nobel Prize-Winners Propose Neutral Cuba and Non-Military Guantanamo."

5. Pamphlet captioned "Must We Go On Playing Chicken?" issued by the Friends Peace Committee (Quakers), 1520 Race Street, Philadelphia 2, Pa. This pamphlet generally opposes the "brink of nuclear war policy" and proposes UN mediation, negotiation, and withdrawal of U. S. base in Turkey and guarantees against invasion of Cuba.

6. Leaflet issued by the WILPF setting forth the WILPF "Statement on Cuba" adopted by the National Board, 10/28/62. This statement generally states the United States was wrong in putting the quarantine on Cuba as the world was brought to the brink of a thermo-nuclear war. The United States should have resorted to a legal technique of negotiation through UN. The reverse side of the leaflet sets forth telegrams on Cuba sent to the President and Senator WILLIAM FULBRIGHT, Chairman, and every member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, 10/26 and 27/62 from DOROTHY HUTCHINSON, President, WILPF.

7. Leaflet of WILPF dated 10/24/62 captioned "Statement on Cuba!" This statement urges the United States to suspend the blockade on Cuba and negotiate through UN.

8. WILPF leaflet dated 10/9/62 which is a letter to Vice-President LYNDON B. JOHNSON from DOROTHY HUTCHINSON, President, U. S. Section, WILPF, setting forth WILPF views on Cuba. She states "...we can best demonstrate that we champion peace and freedom by adhering to President KENNEDY's declared policy of non-intervention either by blockade or invasion."

9. WILPF Action card captioned "Let Your Voice Be Heard," "Cuban Crisis Continues and Danger of War Entails Responsibility to Present WILPF Position." The card states in part as follows:

"ACTION: Send airmail letters (telegrams if crisis intensifies) to the President, Secretary of State Rusk, Ambassador Stevenson, your own Senators, your editors.

- 1) Support continuing negotiations through the UN. The whole world is involved in the danger.
- 2) Oppose any blockade, invasion or other military action by the U.S. or any other nation.
- 3) Emphasize the importance of Brazil's proposal for a nuclear free Latin-America as a step toward GENERAL AND COMPLETE DISARMAMENT - the agreed goal of the U. S. and USSR.
- 4) Seize this opportunity to commend the President on his statement that (a) general negotiations on removal of foreign military bases could follow dismantling of Cuban bases by USSR...."

"TAKE ADVANTAGES OF OPPORTUNITIES THROUGH MASS MEDIA- Present WILPF view through phone-in radio programs and panel discussions on TV and radio. FOR FACTUAL

"BACKGROUND AND FULL WILPF STATEMENTS SENT TO LITERATURE DEPARTMENT, 2006 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 3, Pa. for Cuba Kit - $.25."

10. A seven-page paper captioned "Next Steps on Cuba and Latin America," "A statement of Principles and Program growing out of a consultation of representatives of several United States peace organizations at Nyack, New York, November 10 and 11, 1962." It was prepared and edited by the Fellowship of Reconciliation. The following were participants in the consultation:

ROBERT GILMORE
Executive Director
Turn Toward Peace

ALFRED HASSSLER
Executive Secretary
Fellowship of Reconciliation

HOMER S. JACK
National Director
Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy

CHARLES LAUGHLIN*

Legislation

ENRIQUE NOBLE
Goucher College

MILDRED OLMSTED
National Administrative Secretary
Women's International League for Peace and Freedom

WILLIAM WINGELL
Friends Peace Committee

This document is generally critical of United States policy in Cuba and urges settlement of all problems by non-violent and pacifist means with particular reliance on the UN.

11. Leaflet of WILPF dated 11/62 captioned "Background Bibliography on Cuba" which lists the following:

'THE U.S., CUBA AND LATIN AMERICA by Jaime Benitez, an occasional Paper on the Free Society; Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, 1961, Santa

DECLASSIFIED BY SP-8 b7c/2b

ON 11-25-87

2-24-92 983 rad day

The program of the sixteenth annual Conference on World Affairs, held April 8-12, 1963 at the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado, reflects that captioned individuals participated in a discussion entitled "CASTROLOGY" on April 11, 1963. #B18319

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised April 11, 1963 that during this discussion J. P. Morray, who was identified as a lecturer at the University of California, stated that the United States is a war-mongerer toward Cuba.

Samuel Shapiro stated he had been to Cuba and he compared Castro with John Brown of the American Civil War. Shapiro said that Castro had released the peasants from slavery; that Castro has done a lot by educating the people in Cuba, and after he "nails" down the system in Cuba, he will allow free elections.

I. F. Stone stated that he wants the American Peace Corps to go to Cuba and help rebuild that country; wants the State Department to negotiate with Castro for Cuban sugar; and wants the United States to recognize Castro's Cuba as it exists today.

Adam Yarmolinsky, who was participating in the conference, but not this particular discussion, came into the hall where this discussion was being held. Mr. Yarmolinsky immediately attacked the statements made by the above-named individuals and defended the policies of the United States as they pertain to Cuba.

Harry Nier, described by this source as Chairman of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, asked Mr. Yarmolinsky why can't U. S. Citizens get their passports validated for travel to Cuba. Mr. Yarmolinsky stated this could not be done because the United States was close to a conflict with the USSR because of Cuba, and because of previous difficulty U. S. citizens had in Cuba, under Castro's control.

I. F. STONE

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Denver Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee sponsored a meeting in Denver on April 10, 1963, at which time Joseph P. Morray was the principal speaker.

Source reported that Morray said he had been a visiting professor of Political Science at the University of Havana in 1961-1962. Morray spoke of the Communist's part in the Cuban Revolution from the beginning up to the time that Castro admitted being a Marxist. Throughout his speech Morray was very favorable toward the Castro regime and the Communist Party's part in the regime. Morray stated that Cuba has many problems, specifically organizational problems, but that they will eventually overcome these problems. He said that Cuban economic problems will be overcome with the help of the socialist countries. He stated that 80% of the people of Cuba support Castro and the regime can never be overthrown from within. He said this was proven at the Bay of Pigs invasion when not one person within Cuba defected. He said that we hear a lot about the flow of Cubans from Cuba into this country, but never about the Cubans that were here before and have now returned to Cuba.

In the middle of Morray's talk, [redacted]

American Civil Liberties Union, got up very excited and shouted profane oaths at Morray and called him a Communist. [redacted] left the hall, and on his way out, struck [redacted] who was nearby. Source describes [redacted]

[redacted] as a leading member of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party.

The question and answer period dealt with questions such as these: Will the Revolution collapse if Castro should disappear? Morray answered that he did not believe so. Will Cuba's economy collapse without U. S. trade? Morray answered that he did not believe so since they have the help of all the socialist countries. Is the Castro regime trying to start revolutions in other parts of Latin America? Morray said that this has not been proven to be true and he does not believe it to be true.

Characterizations of the Denver Chapter, Fair Play for Cuba Committee, and the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party are attached hereto.

On 5/28/63, [redacted] furnished the following items of literature to SA [redacted]. These are retained in 100-4899-1B-4(35). b7C b6 b7D

1. The March-April 1963 issue of "Scrapbook," issued by the American Friends Service Committee (AFSC), Middle Atlantic Region, 1500 Race Street, Philadelphia 2, Pa., High School Program - DICK HILER, Director. This issue has an article captioned "Violence" by JESSAMYN WEST, and sets forth a schedule of AFSC sponsored events during the summer of 1963, including Pinebrook Institute, July 14-21 (Pocono Mountains, Pa.), Mar-Lu-Ridge World Affairs Camp, Jefferson, Md., August 25 to September 1. Detailed information concerning these camps has previously been reported.

2. March-April 1963 issue of Spectrum, issued by the AFSC, Middle Atlantic Region, 1500 Race Street, Philadelphia 2, Pa. - DICK HILER, Editor. This issue contains a reprint from I. F. STONE's biweekly dated 4/15/63, which states in part as follows:

"It's not the Negro alone to whom the Free World appears as a fraud. President Kennedy at Costa Rica had hardly finished calling for 'an unyielding defense against all who seek to impose new tyrannies on the Americas' when a new military tyranny was established in Guatemala, the third in a year: First Argentina, then Peru, now Guatemala. In each case the military took over in fear of free elections. Though free elections bulk large in our official rhetoric,

"there is some evidence that we shared that fear. CBS April 4 and Bert Quint from Guatemala City in the New York HERALD-TRIBUNE April 7 both reported that the Guatemalan army chief, Peralta, made discreet soundings as to what the U.S. reaction would be before venturing to take power. Quint wrote that, like the Guatemalan army, the U. S. believed free elections would bring Juan Jose Arevalo to power again and 'Washington felt he could not be trusted.' Dictatorships are allowed to stage fake elections in Paraguay, Nicaragua and Haiti without U. S. interference or loss of Alliance for Progress aid. But free elections are stopped without protest from us, if not with our connivance, where we fear the results. The test is not whether Guatemalans trust Arevalo but whether we do. This is what people below the border call Yankee Imperialism."

This article continues to be severely critical of United States policy in Central and Latin America and in Cuba.

This issue also contains an editorial from "Liberation," issue of February 1963, captioned "Was George Orwell an Optimist?" This issue states in part as follows:

"Every day there is sad new evidence that George Orwell was an optimist when he gave the title 1984 to his prophetic novel. The United States is a 'Free Country' and Big Brother Eastland, Dodd, and Walter are determined to keep it that way -- even if they have to take away freedom of speech, press and association to do it."

The article goes on to criticize the activities of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, the HUAC, and the FBI.

"ETHEL TAYLOR presiding, said the Mothers' lobby was both an exciting and a discouraging experience. As someone said when a senator went by, make way for him, he is a representative of the people - we can say, make way for us, we are the people. The most memorable incident was when we all met on the steps of the Capitol. There had been a meeting in a church just before and, as we stood there on the steps, we could see the long line of women walking single file, a line reaching as far as the eye could see, each woman wearing a flower with a picture of a child in it; and all converging on the Capitol to talk to their representatives. A discouraging aspect was that the congressmen knew we were coming and all made a point of being somewhere else. But we smoked them out and interviewed all but one of them. There was much that was discouraging but there were pockets of hope as well. A congressman from Maryland who told us he knew our cause was right; another asked for material to read; we talked to all except BURNS. As it happened, we did not see CLARK either. He had promised to meet us on the Capitol steps but at the last minute he had to go to a committee meeting. But we knew he was with us. What interests me is the mass blackout of all this in Philadelphia; newspapers, radio, TV all omitted to mention it. Some thought we went to Washington only to boo ROCKEFELLER. It would be a good thing to write to the newspapers about this. We were discouraged by the prevalent coolness toward a test ban treaty. We are tired, discouraged and nearly broke; we need your help. If when you put your contributions in the envelopes you will write your name and address on the envelope we will then know that we can count on you to send a contribution regularly once a month. On the train to Washington there were over 1,000 women. On the way back each one was asked to contribute 50¢ to make up a gift to Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING; we collected $575. Tomorrow at 12-3 NAACP will hold a vigil at City Hall; all next week there will be demonstrations by FPC, WSP, WILPF and others as it is Armed Forces Week.

"Reports: from MARGARET TORRENCE, NAOMI MARCUS, MAIA COBORN, EMILY YOUNG and others on their interviews with congressmen on May 7th. Congressman GREEN said he had not time to spare, was against the President, wouldn't be drawn into discussion, accused Senator CLARK, didn't agree that a test ban treaty was important, said peacetime economy means no jobs, refused to make speeches at home, in House in newsletter, nobody was going to tell him what to do or think. MILLIGAN of Delaware County said test ban treaty was good if there was enough inspection, was not well informed, not qualified to make speeches about it anywhere, chief concern is to keep US strong and to repress subversion. BARRETT wants to stop spread of nuclear weapons. CONRAD (?) in favor of a test ban treaty and thought the time is now, not for him to talk or write about it, expects to hold a meeting on it when he gets home; would vote for disarmament, better talk to uncommitted nations. SCHWEIKER of Montgomery County, his office was jammed, 22 crowded in; he was calm, friendly, pleasant and non-committal, is supporting the continuance of the Arms Control and Disarmament agency, can anticipate trouble in getting a test ban treaty, must remember he is only a congressman and has no authority to dictate policy, he wrote down everything we asked him to do and said he would send out a questionnaire when he got home; we reminded him that time is short. SCOTT of Pa., we wrote to 3 weeks ago, got an answer one week ago, he can't see us. Saw his assistant who said SCOTT feels we ought to accept the proposal of the Russians for a test ban treaty with 2 or 3 inspections. we asked he say this on floor of Senate and at home, he things other things more important - we should contact chairman of Foreign Relations Committee. NAOMI MARCUS said the interesting thing about SCOTT is that he has made a complete change on this since peace groups have been talking and writing to him.

PH 100-46020

"ETHEL TAYLOR, those of you who read the New York Times will know that that a group of our women went to see Pope John XXIII and to Geneva; introduced KAY CAMP (MRS. KATHARINE M. CAMP [redacted] [redacted] Norristown, Pa.)

"KAY CAMP: feel grateful to WSP who made it possible to go, especially to LILLY GREENBERG, LEE HARRIS, P. DARNELL, HELEN EVELEV. Was one of 26 from United States and of 60 from 18 countries; women who went to Rome to plead for peace and especially its religious and moral aspects. In our hotel on outskirts of Rome we paid $2.50 a day and that included meals, so we weren't too comfortable. Rome had just had its Easter peace walk and we joined 10,000 people outside Saint Peters. The 6 who had tickets sat up front. The Pope addressed his message to our concerns, spoke in Italian and said in effect, I am glad you have faith in our work for peace. His whole message was on peace and he thanked us for coming. We also visited the dignitaries of the Vatican Hierarchy. During one visit a woman from Hiroshima brought gifts for the Pope, among them a lump of something which she said was a part of a human bone impregnated with pieces of metal and everyone turned white. The Pope was obviously deeply committed to peace and wanted to do something positive. The Italians were all very friendly and when they saw the large blue tags we were wearing they were most cordial. We met with many other peace workers and interviewed by the press. In Geneva we were received by the World Council of Churches and encouraged in our work; they praised WSP program and had a statement for all peoples. Russian Orthodox there. Talked to Soviet representative to Geneva Conference, who complained that US could not be trusted in view of our testing and other acts of aggression. Visited US representatives who spoke of technical details in setting up a treaty. We were feeling low when U THANT arrived, he was most gracious and said,

"your work is dear to my heart and please keep on with it. We set up a vigil at the Palais des Nations and got police protection. We had banners or packards with quotations from U THANT, the Pope and others in French and English; but the police would not let us use them. So we threw them on the ground and reporters came and took pictures of them. We stood there all night in the pouring rain. We visited delegates from other nations, the Polish delegate being especially kind and understanding. In Paris we talked to the press and also in Frankfurt and in Munich.

"ETHEL TAYLOR said it is noe I. F. STONE's Bi-Weekly and introduced him.

"I. F. STONE: I am surprised to be here; I would have thought that, after standing on the steps of the Capitol and being received by senators and representatives, you would be too respectable to want me. The demonstration in Washington was an extraordinary affair; only two months after your organization was smeared by HUAC at the Capitol you are received by respectable congressmen at the Capitol. I am afraid we are all going to hear bad news about a test ban treaty. The Atomic Energy commission is making some very queer tests - all hushed up; one of them is a low level ground burst and all fallout will be localized; but the Russians may get it and use it and then what good is it to us? KEATING is all excited about missiles in caves in Cuba. Everytime the Pope belches KEATING will want to dig up the Vatican walls to look for bombs. All this will lead to more distrust. If you are sure nobody can test in secret then you can't be sure of anything. Suppose we sign a treaty and the other side wants to cheat, how sure can they be they won't be found out - a 5 ton test in Oklahoma was picked up 5000 miles away in Canada. Thanks to the cold war, the biggest agency in Washington is the National Security Agency, a network that listens in all over the world; but so have the Russians. We don't know the full extent of our ability to detect under-ground tests, but I think it is large. We know where in Russia it is possible to make under ground tests, who we could pin point them.

KENNETH B Keating

"If the US wanted a test ban treaty we would accept the Russian plan and if they wanted one, they would accept our plan; as a matter of fact, neither side can make up its mind and the military on both sides want testing and so does industry, because if you are selling weapons or anything else you naturally want the latest model to sell. Fear also helps the side that wants testing. Nobody trusts anybody else. The French and British distrust us. The Pope spoke the truth when he said we need a world community. What is WSP going to do in the next few months? Everybody wants peace from the Pope down - even congressmen. But they are ignorant about it; they get very little mail about peace. Send them some. You have played an important part in the world and made a wide impression considering the smallness of your group. You are a very small minority. The peace movement must dig in for a long haul and a hard one. Have you ever noticed that nations grow more helpless the more power they have? The US has the biggest military force in the world. 3 million men under arms and an enormous air lift. But somehow we can't do anything and neither can the Russians. Vietnam has more and more American arms. They began with bows and arrows, but as more and more American soldiers run away they leave their weapons behind them. Weapons are so terrible now that the consequent immobility of the great powers is pretty complete. What I would like to see is for SWP to build a militant women's organization by winning a woman for peace in every block of every city. The way to make peace with Cuba is not to starve the people. In making economic war on Cuba we are breaking the Treaty of Bogota. What we ought to do is to send the Peace Corps down there. When NASSAR took Suez we were not concerned; but when CASTRO took sugar, that hurt. What we should do is to ask for compensation for American property confiscated; they have offered to pay, but we turn a deaf ear. If we resume trade with Cuba they will pay for the American property they took. Why don't we explore the possibilities of U THANT's proposals - to accept demilitarization of Cuba with international guarantees against American aggression? Why don't the papers print things like that? The public has never heard of it. China has "a quarrel on with the Russians; why don't we accept her proposal for a nuclear-free Pacific? They have offered this several times and each time we give them a slap in the face. Some day we will regret it. We've got to negotiate with China some time. Why is the State Department so cool to the suggestion of 5 Latin American powers for a nuclear-free Latin America? It is because Germany doesn't want a nuclear-free Germany and neither do we. The genii we ought to be forcing back into the bottle is German militarism. We are too busy to think. But we do have some freedom left and we need to get people to realize that we must move away from a narrow nationalism into a world community for peace. The WSP can work on getting people to realize that this is the only way to save ourselves.

"Questions: You said WSP could look forward to a more difficult period; please define it and say how we can meet it. A. Lack of public interest in such matters as continuance of HUAC and discontinuance of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. Public apathy will have to be overcome; you must work harder to inform the public and the Congress. Are you advocating world government? A. the destructive power of man is increasing so fast and man's ancient habita of tribalism and war are so deep-rooted that formation of a world community of some sort is necessary to prevent mutual murder. If neither side really wants a test ban treaty, what are they doing at Geneva? A. Before all wars there is talk; some want war, some do not and many are undecided, so they negotiate. Why doesn't the President do something about the test ban treaty? A. Because he can't get it through the Senate; it is short by 11 votes. The Russians live up to treaties as they are written, but the US wants to interpret them in its own way and, of course, this is not acceptable to the Russians. What would you think of sending out peace workers two by two every so often - each two to convert 10 other people? A. I think that is a fine idea."

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

The Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) maintains headquarters in Suite 424, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised in July, 1960, that RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the Civil Liberties Commission, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, met with key leaders of the CP of Illinois and discussed with them the fact that the climate in the United States on civil liberties and civil rights issues had changed to the extent that it was now possible to proceed to form a new organization with broad mass support. By doing so, CRILEY believed that people who would not associate themselves with an organization of narrow scope would join a civil liberties and civil rights organization built around a broader issue such as the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). The CP leaders, after receiving assurance from CRILEY that any new organization that might evolve would protect the Party interests, authorized CRILEY to proceed with his plan to form a broader organization.

A second source advised on October 31, 1960, that a new organization known as the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights was formally launched in Chicago at a meeting on October 26, 1960. The stated primary purpose of the new organization was to seek the abolition of the HCUA, and RICHARD CRILEY was named as its Executive Secretary, after having been the guiding force in arranging the October 26, 1960, meeting.

The first source, in October, 1960, advised that CRILEY again attended a meeting of the Illinois District CP leadership on October 28, 1960, at which time he reported on the organizational meeting of the CCDBR. CRILEY stated that the immediate purpose of his organization is to obtain mass support to abolish the HCUA, but the new Committee purposes will also include defense of Smith Act and Taft-Hartley victims. He said there will be no formal affiliation with any national organization of similar purpose; however, the CCDBR, according to CRILEY, will consult and have liaison with national organizations having the same purpose. According to the source, the CP leadership agreed with the general direction of the CCDBR as outlined by CRILEY.

A third source advised on May 3, 1962, that the CCDBR continues to adhere to the same aims and purposes and operates under the same leadership.
